TERMS

1. Concerning this agreement, the term ski (skiing) or skier also designates snowboarders and snowboarders.
2. The membership card is not redeemable.
3. Your membership card is to be worn at all times and clearly visible to have access to the ski-lifts at Mont Kanasuta, otherwise access will be refused.
4. The membership card cannot be lent, sold or reproduced. Any violation will mean immediate cancellation of the membership card and legal action could be taken. The use of another person's membership card is an illegal act. If a pass is used fraudulently, a fine of 75 $ will be charged to the member plus the price of a day-pass.
5. The management should be informed of any stolen or lost season pass. A duplicate can be issued at a cost of 25 $, which will not be refunded.
6. The season-ticket holder is aware of all dangers inherent to skiing and the use of the ski-lifts and accepts the total responsibility for any bodily damages which may occur. He/She dismisses the resort of all responsibilities resulting from improper compliance with regulations and security rules or any other damages resulting.
7. All season-ticket holders are entrusted to respect the code of conduct of the alpine skiers as well as the regulations determined by the resort.

All following sanctions will be imposed on the insubordinate skier without notification or reimbursement:

1st offence: (membership card) 8-day suspension.

2nd offence: (membership card) 15- day suspension.

3rd offence: undetermined suspension of the membership card.

MOUNTAIN CODE OF CONDUCT

Code adopted under the Act respecting safety in sports.
This Code applies to all persons practicing snow sports.

1. Remain in control of your speed and direction. Make sure you can stop and avoid any person or obstacle.
2. Yield the right of way to persons downhill and choose a course that ensures their safety.
3. Stop on a trail only if you are visible from above and if you are not obstructing the trail.
4. Yield the right of way to persons uphill when entering a trail and at intersections.
5. If you are involved in or witness an accident, remain at the scene and identify yourself to a first-aid.
6. Use and wear at all times a proper device to prevent runaway equipment.
7. Keep out of the lifts and trails if your ability is impaired through use of alcohol or drugs.
8. Obey all signs and warnings and never venture off the trails or onto a closed trail.

There are elements of risk that common sense and personal awareness can help reduce. Regardless of how you decide to use the slopes, always show courtesy to others. Observe the code listed above and share with others the responsibility for a great outdoor experience.

You must obey all other rules and signs pertaining to any particular activity as marked out by the resort.

Know the code. Be safety conscious. It is your responsibility!

The Ticket Holder recognizes, accepts and assumes the inherent risks of snow sliding sports such as skiing and snowboarding. The Ticket Holder assumes all risks of personal injury or any material damage resulting from the said risks. Among others, the following lists the elements considered inherent risks to the normal practice of a snow sliding sport:

- Changing climatic conditions;

- Changes in the steepness of the slope;

The presence of natural obstacles and any other natural features, such as ditches, crevices and brooks, rocks, earth, uncovered spots, trees, trees regrowth, natural bushes and stumps, and any other natural obstacle;

- Ice and ice patches;

- Any change to surface condition;

- Collisions with skiers or other persons;

- The presence of pylons, poles and any other structures used in the operation of the ski area and collisions with these elements;

- The use of ski lifts;

- The presence on the slopes of grooming equipment and emergency vehicles and snowmaking equipment.

The contract in virtue of which the present lift ticket was issued is subject to the laws in force in Quebec. The holder of the present lift ticket, as well as the issuer of said ticket, agree to elect domicile in the judicial district of Rouyn-Noranda, province of Quebec and declare that same is the appropriate forum for any and all claims, of whatever nature, arising from the contract in virtue of which the present ticket was issued.
